

Want to work for yourself?

Doing Good Business can help you.

We provide one-to-one coaching support, at your pace, to fit in with your life. We can help to make your business idea a success and support you to remove any barriers.

We will:

- Help you to explore the potential of becoming self employed
- Provide expertise from experienced professionals and training on key topics
- Support you to manage your personal circumstances
- Enable you to develop your skills and personal strengths
- Tailor support to meet your needs

It's a lot more straightforward than you think.

Contact us today if you're 25+ and currently not working.
